Hospice of the Chesapeake announces 6 new board members

(PASADENA, MD, Aug 2, 2017) — Several prominent members of the community have been appointed to the Boards of Directors of Hospice of the Chesapeake and its Foundation.

Michael DeStefano and Dr. Maulik Joshi began serving on the Hospice of the Chesapeake Inc. Board in May. DeStefano is President of Sturbridge Homes and Sturbridge Development Company. Joshi is Anne Arundel Medical Center's Vice President of Integrated Care Delivery and Chief Operating Officer.

Dr. Susan Duncan, Theresa Hussman, William Love Jr., and Kenneth Stanley are the newest members of the Hospice of the Chesapeake Foundation Board of Directors. Duncan, a human resources consultant, joined the Foundation Board in June 2016. Hussman, a director and project coordinator for the Hussman Foundation and a director of the Hussman Institute for Autism, joined in October. Love, chief financial officer for a consumer electronic retail chain in with stores in Maryland and Virginia, joined in June. Stanley, who also began serving the Board in June, is the owner and President of Stanley Engineering Company.

Headquartered in Pasadena, the nonprofit provides hospice and palliative care as well as bereavement services to residents of Anne Arundel and Prince George's counties.
