

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Elyzabeth Marcussen, 443-837-1559
emarcussen@hospicechesapeake.org

Gallery 90 welcomes fall with harvest of Federation artists

(PASADENA, MD, Aug. 31, 2016) — A new exhibit by the Maryland Federation of Art will open Sept. 1 at Hospice of the Chesapeake's Gallery 90; the art gallery located throughout the nonprofit's administrative building on the John & Cathy Belcher Campus at 90 Ritchie Highway, Pasadena, Maryland.

This limited showing will be on display until Nov. 25, and features the work of c. l. bigelow and Patrice Drago, both Annapolis residents and artists-in-residence at Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts; plein air artists David Diaz of Annapolis and Bruno Baran of Nottingham; and wife and husband Stacey and George Sass of Annapolis. Other member artists include Carolyn Councill and Mary Ellen Geissenhainer of Pasadena, Carole P. Falk and Izzy Winn of Annapolis and Andrew Wohl of Bethesda.

You can register now for docent-led tours that will take place from 2 to 4 p.m. Oct. 14 and Nov. 4 or schedule a private tour for your group by contacting Kris Carpenter-Zyla at 410-987-2003, Ext. 1328, or kcarpenterzyla@hospicechesapeake.org.

To realize the vision of creating a harmonious work environment for Hospice of the Chesapeake administrative staff and visiting nurses, caregivers and volunteers who work directly with patients and their families, the MFA and Hospice of the Chesapeake formed a partnership. The art on display also is for sale, with a portion of the proceeds benefiting both organizations.

For more information on the MFA, visit www.mdfedart.com.

--more--

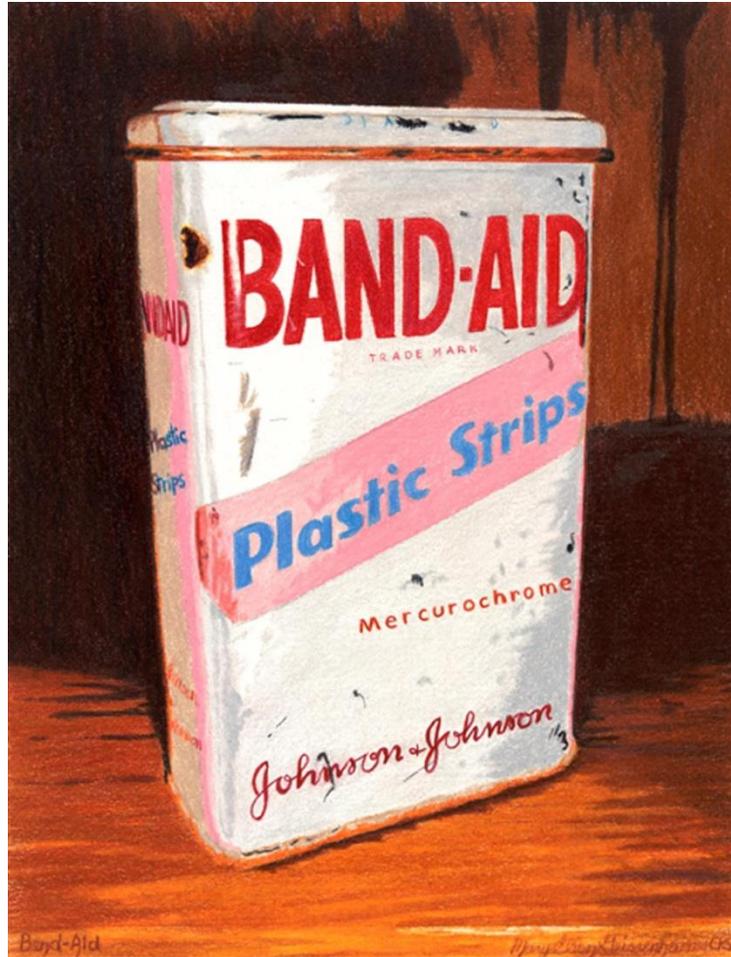

Three photos of art that will be on display follows below. High resolution pictures are available upon request.

“Doors in a Dream,” acrylic on paper, by Carole P. Falk

“Reeds,” digital photo print, by Andrew Wohl

“Band-Aid,” colored pencil, by Mary Ellen Geissenhainer

###

Caring for life throughout the journey with illness and loss is the mission of Hospice of the Chesapeake. For more information, please visit www.hospicechesapeake.org.