25 artists reflect on ‘Memories’ in MFA show in Gallery 90

(PASADENA, MD, Aug. 10, 2018) — A new exhibit by the Maryland Federation of Art has opened at Hospice of the Chesapeake’s Gallery 90, the art gallery located throughout the nonprofit’s administrative building on the John & Cathy Belcher Campus at 90 Ritchie Highway, Pasadena, Maryland.

The limited showing, selected to evoke a theme of “Memories,” is on display through Sept. 28 and features the work of 25 MFA members. Participating members are D. Bastile, c.l. bigelow, Ed Blake, Patrice Drago, Christopher Fowler, Kay Fuller, Kathy Gardiner, Mary Ellen Geissenhainer, Richard Hall, Judy Jordan, Sunhee Jung, Perry Kapsh, Emily Mitchell, Richard Niewerth, Angela Petruncio, Sally Regnier, Stacy Sass, Camilla Schwarz, Anne Sieling, Esther Sodani, Gabriella Wagner, John Wagner, Anne Weathersby, Izzy Winn and Janna Zuber.

You can register now for a docent-led tour that will take place from 9 to 11 a.m. Sept. 14 or schedule a private tour for your group by contacting Renate Little at rlittle@hospicechesapeake.org or 443-837-1512.

To realize the vision of creating a harmonious work environment for Hospice of the Chesapeake administrative staff and visiting nurses, caregivers and volunteers who work directly with patients and their families, the MFA and Hospice of the Chesapeake formed a partnership. The art on display also is for sale, with a portion of the proceeds benefiting both organizations.
