

Bryan Nehman

Bryan Nehman hosts WBAL News Now with Bryan Nehman weekday mornings on WBAL NewsRadio 1090 and FM 101.5 from 5 a.m. to 9 a.m.

Born in Washington, D.C., Bryan grew up in Crofton, MD, attended Arundel High School and is a graduate of the University of Maryland. His radio career began with an internship for the Bowie Baysox, which helped him secure his first full-time opportunity handling news at WNAV in Annapolis. He has also served as the public address announcer for Navy Basketball and sideline reporter for Navy Football.

In 2000, Bryan landed a job in Washington, D.C., on WMAL Radio as a news reporter and soon was promoted to morning drive anchor. While at WMAL, Bryan reported live from the Pentagon on 9/11, was on the scene of the sniper shootings, and traveled to Atlanta to report on the University of Maryland's 2004 men's basketball national championship. In 2010, Bryan was named co-host of Mornings on the Mall on WMAL which soon turned into the Brian and Bryan Show, with former FOX TV anchor, Brian Wilson. In October of 2012 Bryan joined the WBAL NewsRadio team, where he continues to deliver news to the region.

Throughout his career, Bryan has won numerous awards for reporting/anchoring, including several Edward R. Murrow awards. Bryan's philanthropic efforts include hosting the Corporate Plunge during the annual Special Olympics of Maryland Polar Bear Plunge; fundraising for the Fisher House Foundation; and volunteering for the Maryland Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association.
